

Pam,
 We have known each other for quite awhile
 and we are still good friends.
 We both deserve
 a medal, don't we.
 You have a good personality and a nice smile
 keep them both.
 Good Luck in the future.

You are really a neat girl
 I hope even though you wouldn't think so from the way I hear you in here. Good luck!

Monty

Pam,
 Just one more year - thank goodness. I hope everything turns out the way you want. Have fun, but always be good.
 Good luck with Monty.
 I guess I'll never figure him out, but I don't guess I have to - right?!!

Well Pam - we're finally made it to seniors, and we've been together about 3,000 years. Maybe it just seems that long. I just hope we can be friends and do things together next year too. I'll remember you always.
 Good Luck,

Pam,
 I've known
 you a long time, but it seems that just this year I really got to know you. I wish for you the best of luck.
 Spring happens
 if you'll wait.

G's money, Pam's month younger sister has stamped you APPROVED!
 Please
 Remember our love Pam?

Love always,

May God guide you and give you a happy and good luck in everything - I'm still looking!

 Remember last year in your guide - I said I would be expecting a wedding invitation? Well, I'm still looking!
 I feel and that's all that matters! Right

But I'm not an exciting person. I've tried to say what I feel, but well, I've taken up a page and I haven't said anything exciting, I don't do a very good job. But that's okay because you & I know how

So now, I give birth to you my best wishes.
 Yes, Pam, we've been through a lot - you & I have. And I don't regret a single bit of it! There was a purpose and I can see it

Pam, I love you deeply and I don't ever want to do anything that could hurt you or harm our beautiful friendship. I love you & I have birth have trouble doing that and we can see it, so there is no use in hiding yourself or each other. Pam, I'm really close to God now - unlike two peas in the pod! And I'm praying for you & Monty.

 I hope that everything will work out for you. Please remember

But that's not what I want to say.
 Pam, in the 3 1/2 years, I've known you, we have had some trouble mis-understandings; we have cried on each other's shoulders so much, we could have worn each other's shirts out and the tears would have been too-ah-ah-ah; we've had so many good times, that I really can't think of the actual bad times!

 Well, here I am again. Only it's 1 year later, a new yearbook, 1 year older and a ten wiser. Pam, I could start out with the usual - ew. you're a sweet & very cute person! (Which you are, by the way)

These are Plainsmen.
This is Enid High.

Monday morning
and the world crashes in.
Dreams, thin, shatter and alarm-clock sirens lure you into
monday morning.

Cold, cold, water
and toothbrush,
pepsodent.
Soggy Wheaties,
and frozen battery
push you into
monday morning.

Yellow school-bus, icy-heater, broken, chug-holes, stoplights, groaning bus, screeching cars. You are inside monday morning.

Caught in a world of change, turmoil, endless searching for meaning . . .
hidden some where deep within our minds . . .
High school is the place you go to find the answers,
only to find more questions.

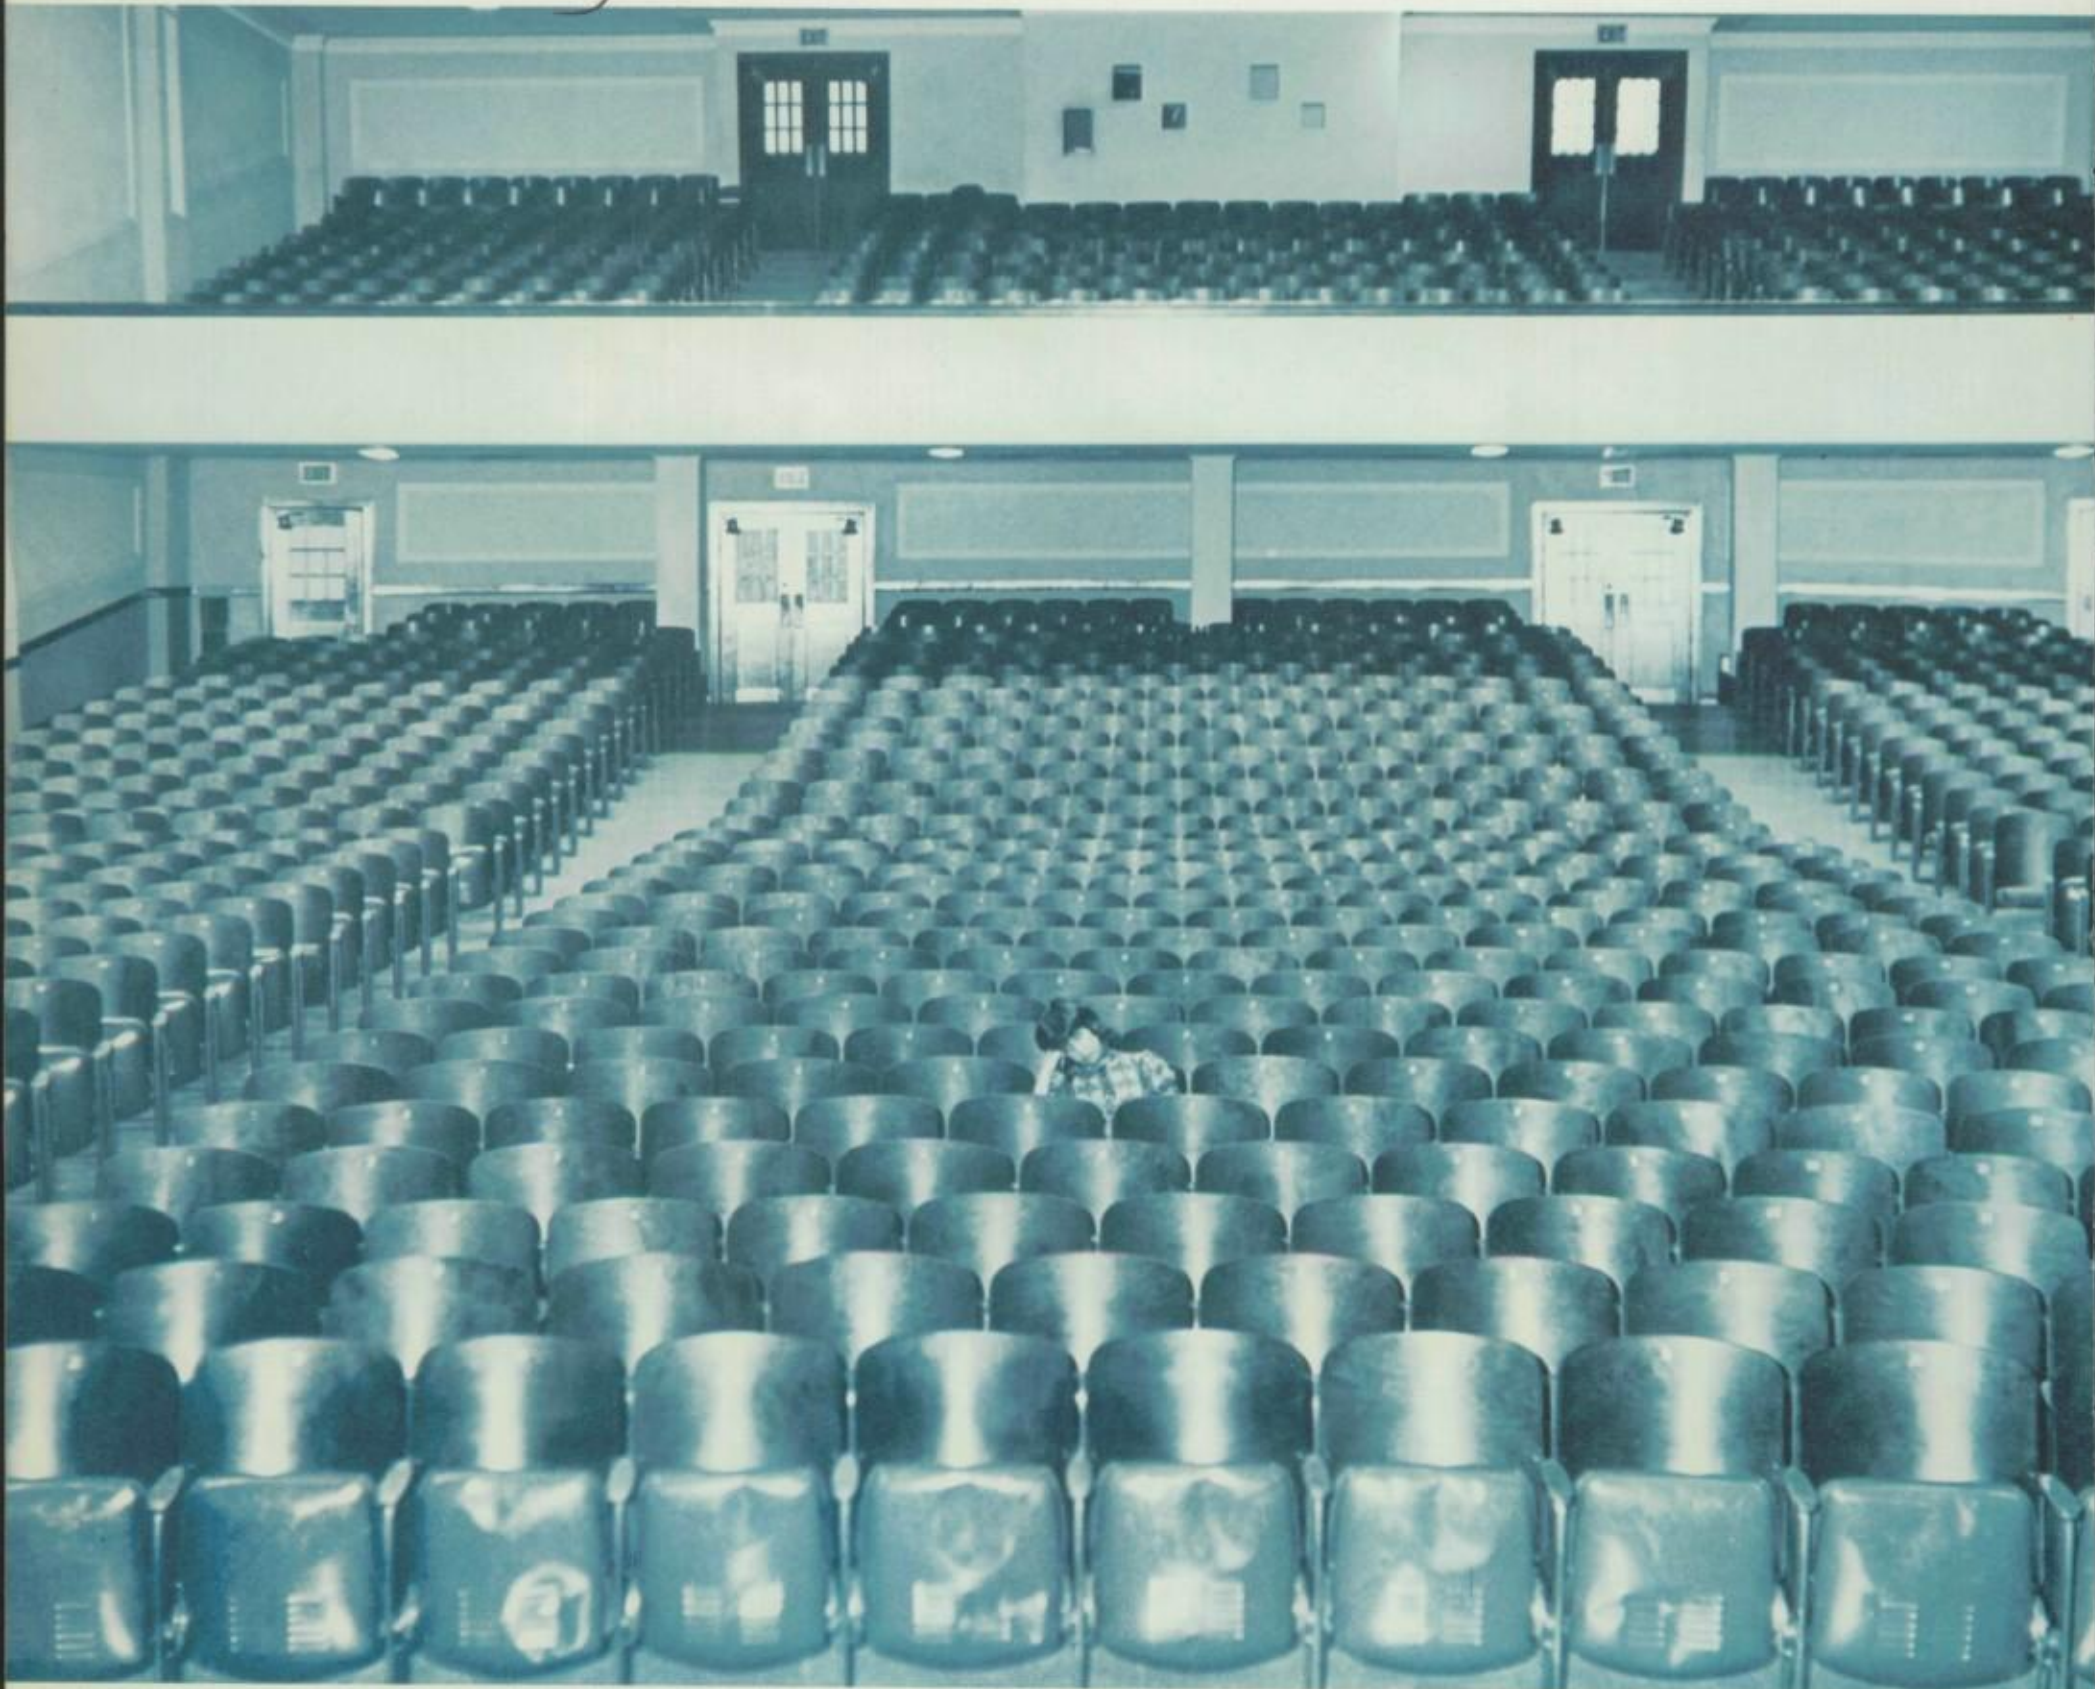

Pam -

I could say that you are pretty and talented, and have a wonderful personality, but that's what everyone says. I don't doubt it, you are all those things. But, we have had some times I'll never forget, and I hope you won't either.
Best of luck always, and God Bless!

This is the mood of our times.
There is learning, peace, tranquility satisfaction with life — as people meet smile, change and exchange ideas, think and love.

We come . . . and we listen . . .
 we agree . . . and we argue . . .
 we question . . . and we answer . . .

Why do anything?
Because man is not a finished creation
but tomorrow's possibility.

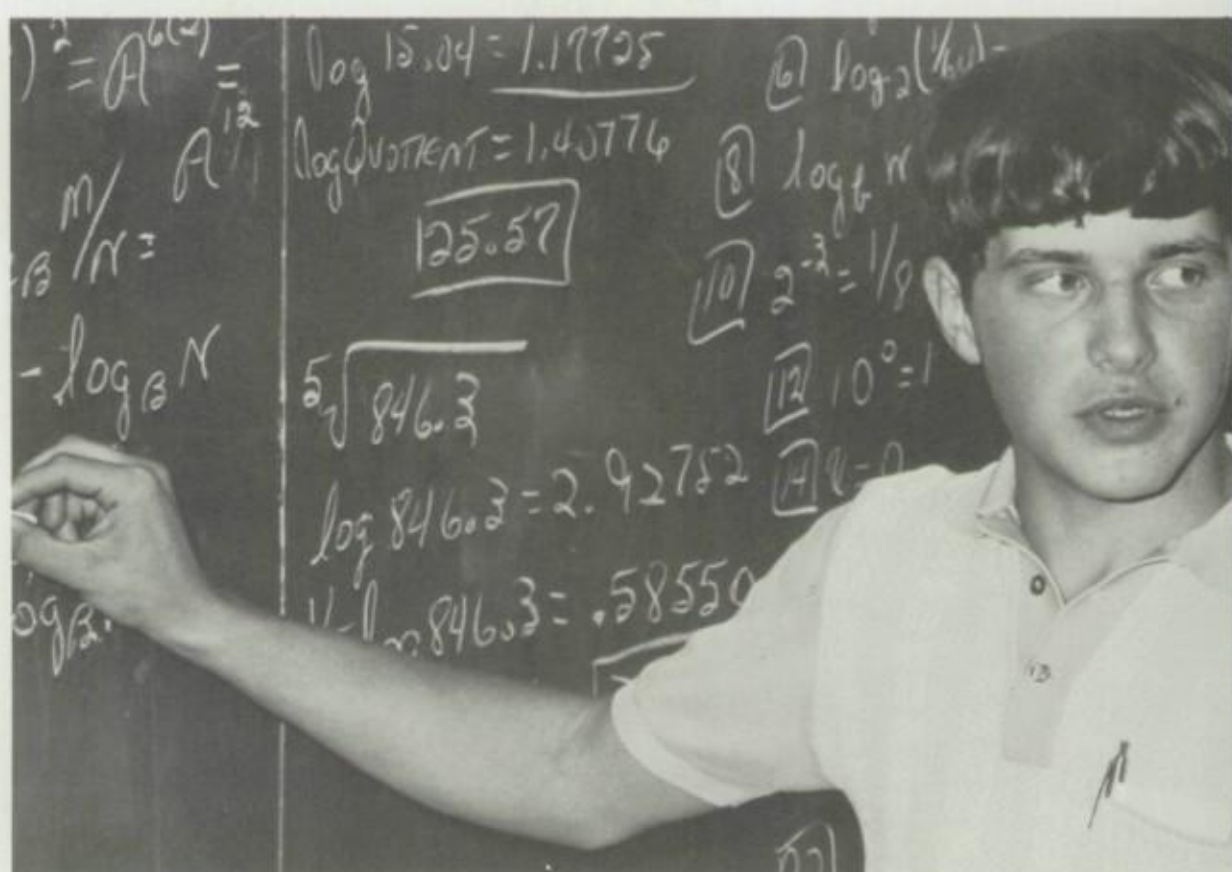

As many looks as there are people . . . the traditional . . . the innovative . . . the standard. . . the free-swinging individuality of the new generation . . . to each his own . . . an extension of our personalities . . . what we are or hope to be . . . the change and the contrast that 1972 has seen in people . . . the substance of Plainsman Images.

EADERSHIP

Administration: Management And Service-Oriented

Superintendent O. T. Autry came to the Enid Public Schools in 1934 as a teacher at Emerson Junior High School. He served Emerson for six years as principal and became Enid High School Principal in 1959.

The Board of Education appointed Mr. Autry as Superintendent in 1964 and he has led a vigorous program for the district, making outstanding progress in special education and in vocational-technical facilities for the students of district #57. This period has also seen increased counseling services, the establishment of a Psychological-Sociological Services Center and the integration of the student bodies. Emphasis has been on in-service training for teachers and the utilization of technological developments.

MR. AUTRY

Conferences with Mr. Mauk are important parts of Mr. Autry's schedule.

MR. ALLIE PAINE, President of School Board.

School Board

1971-1972 brought some exciting progress in the school district. New construction was completed at the Coolidge School and O. T. Autry Vo-Tech center. Academic standards were held high with continuing evaluation and an administrator in each elementary school. The open concept of instruction areas built around media centers, with emphasis upon individualization, was initiated. A variety of special education classes were added, and a reading specialist was employed to serve the district. A feeling of transition was in the air, with human relations and continued curriculum excellence.

DR. CAREY, DR. OLSON, MR. GAMAR, MR. PAINE, President.

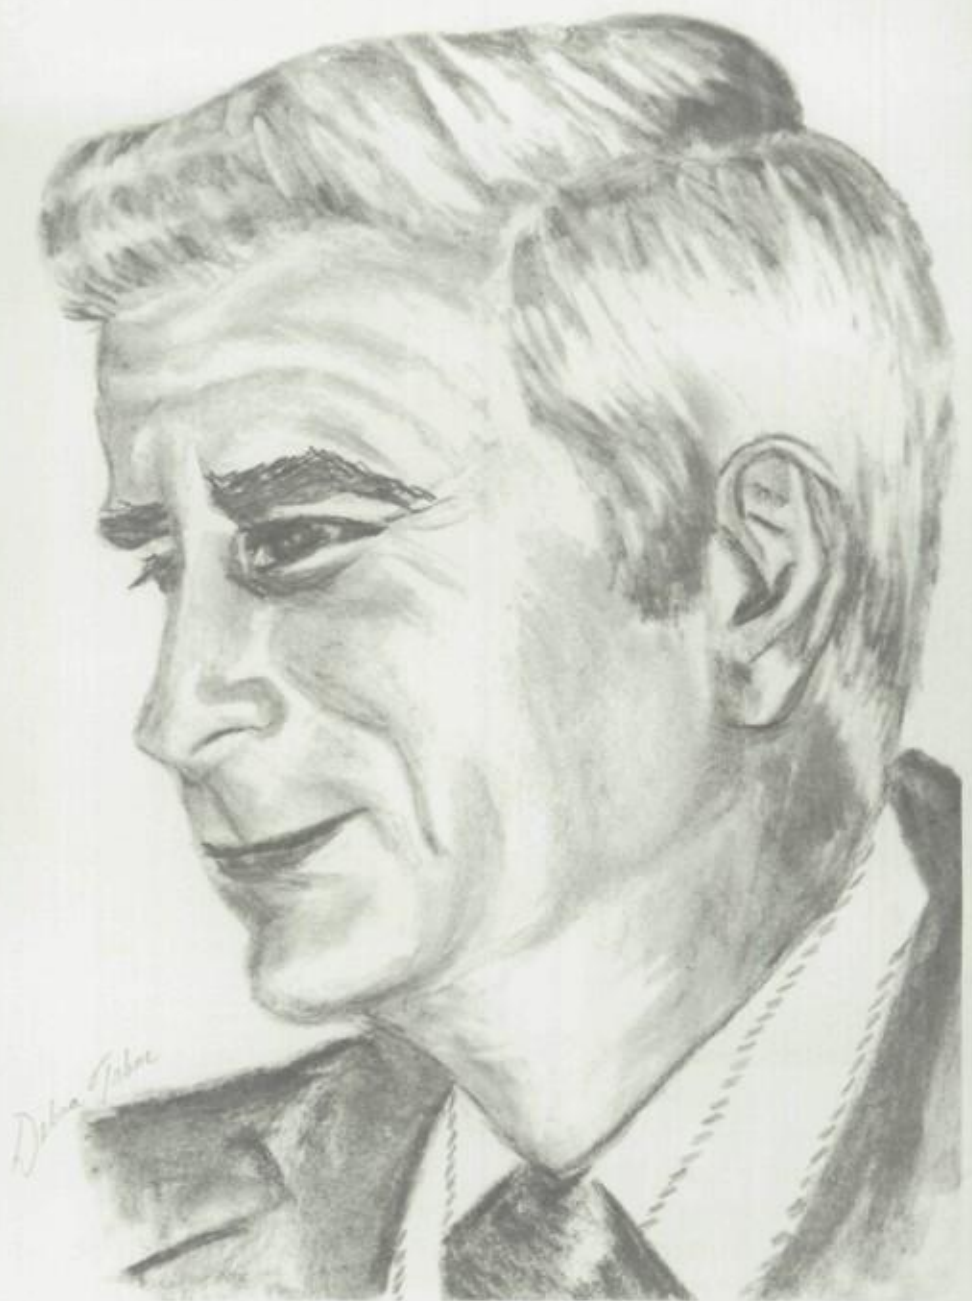

MR. MOULTON, Vice President, MRS. BUVINGER, MR. BELCHER.

Involvement Reflects Guidance Dept.

MR. DENNIS ISELIN
Assistant Principal

Dealing with student problems and accepting the many tasks of administration are obligations of the Assistant Principals. Mr. Iselin and Mr. Niles help students to achieve a greater sense of responsibility and to understand their surroundings.

MR. TOM NILES
Assistant Principal

New to the Guidance Department this year are Mr. Nolan Hackler and Mr. Lloyd Ray. Together with Mrs. Nellie McCreary, head of this department; Mr. Zorns Berry, and Mrs. Ann Martin, they help students gain an understanding of their future plans and guide them toward these goals.

Foreign language labs are a busy place at E.H.S.

Errol Kesner Chapter of the National Honor Society cited many honors this year. Six members were named finalists and ten members, commended students in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

To be accepted in the Honor Society, students are required to maintain a 3.35 grade average and be approved by a majority of the teachers for character, leadership, and service.

EHS Lists 16 Commended Students, Semi-Finalists

FRONT ROW: Cristi Chase, Shirley Sears, Susan Thomas, Donna Goodpasture, Mary Wheeler. BACK ROW: Becky Elton, David Franke, Taylor Field, Ron Canady, Patje Henneke.

These students were among 15,000 other semi-finalists nation-wide who competed to receive a share of the 3,000 Merit Scholarships offered to Merit Finalists. They scored in the upper one-half of one percent of high school seniors across the nation, and in the upper one percent of Oklahoma. These students are representative of our nation's most able and intellectual students who will complete high school in '72.

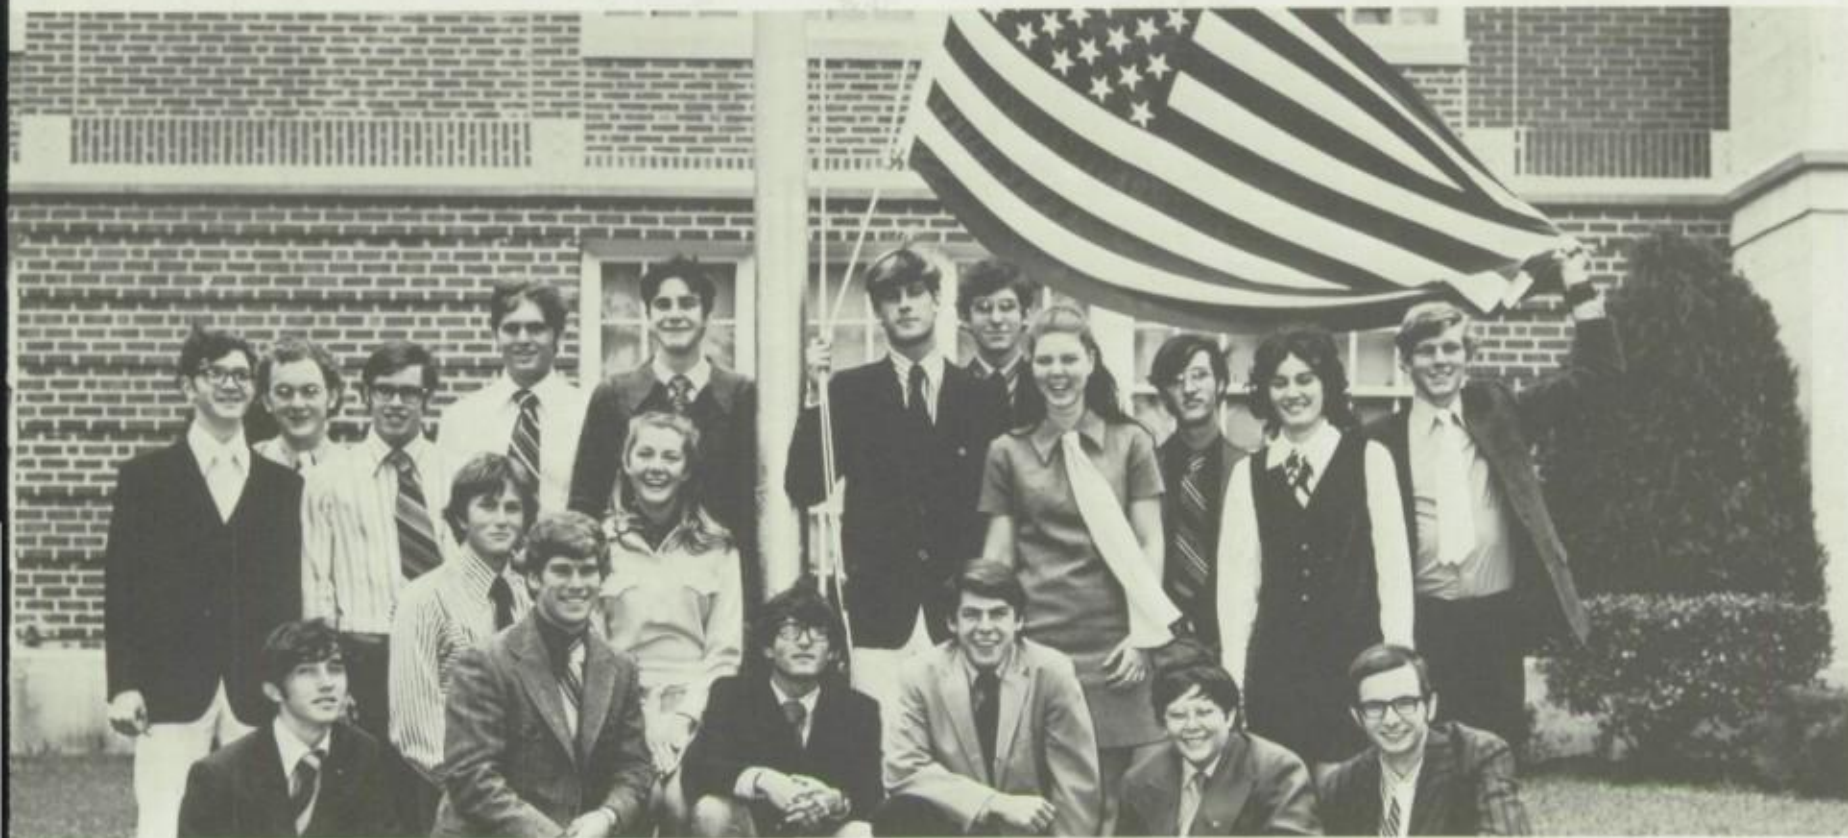

The Commended Students must also meet these requirements and take the National Merit test. They are selected on the basis of revised scores on the National Merit test and scored in the upper two percent of Seniors across the nation.

Student publication editors give many hours each week so that all of Enid High may be promptly informed about school activities. They also work to give enjoyment after the hectic school year is over by producing a memory book of important events at E.H.S.

Late hours, frenzied last-minute changes, rushed deadlines . . . all are a part of the normal everyday duties of the QUILL Annual staff. The staff, under the leadership of Mr. Jim Morris, strived for accuracy and interest in the 1972 QUILL Annual. Staff members gained confidence as they raced with time to reach their goal: a finished annual.

E.H.S. Chorus Creates Musical Moods

This year the Enid High School Mixed Chorus made its debut in the Thanksgiving Assembly. They presented to the student body in their program, several songs related to Thanksgiving. Christmas brought with it various performances for the chorus. They were given the honor during this season of singing for several of the civic clubs in Enid. They relived the deep spiritual meaning of Christmas in the traditional assembly presented on the Enid High stage.

The climax of the year was the annual spring chorus program produced by the vocal music department.

Array Of Talent Distinguishes . . .

Of all the classes old and new,
there'll never be a class like '72.

Dreams became realities as the seniors participated in their traditional activities. Three years of high school were climaxed by homecoming celebrations, the senior play, the prom, Junior-Senior Reception, and May Fete. The seniors also inherited the many privileges that go along with their new title of leaders in the high school.

With commencement the class of 72 will pass into the world beyond high school. The past three years will become a composite of memories both good and bad to look back upon, and the years ahead will continue to add to the knowledge and experience already gained within the walls of Enid High School.

Plainsmen pride and spirit won overall. In its first 6 appearances on the grid the team put on a most astonishing performance. But their luck ran low for the next trio, dropping a chance to the State playoffs.

But Plainsmen spirit prevailed. The Big Blue were able to keep their heads up, for against Muskogee it was a different story.

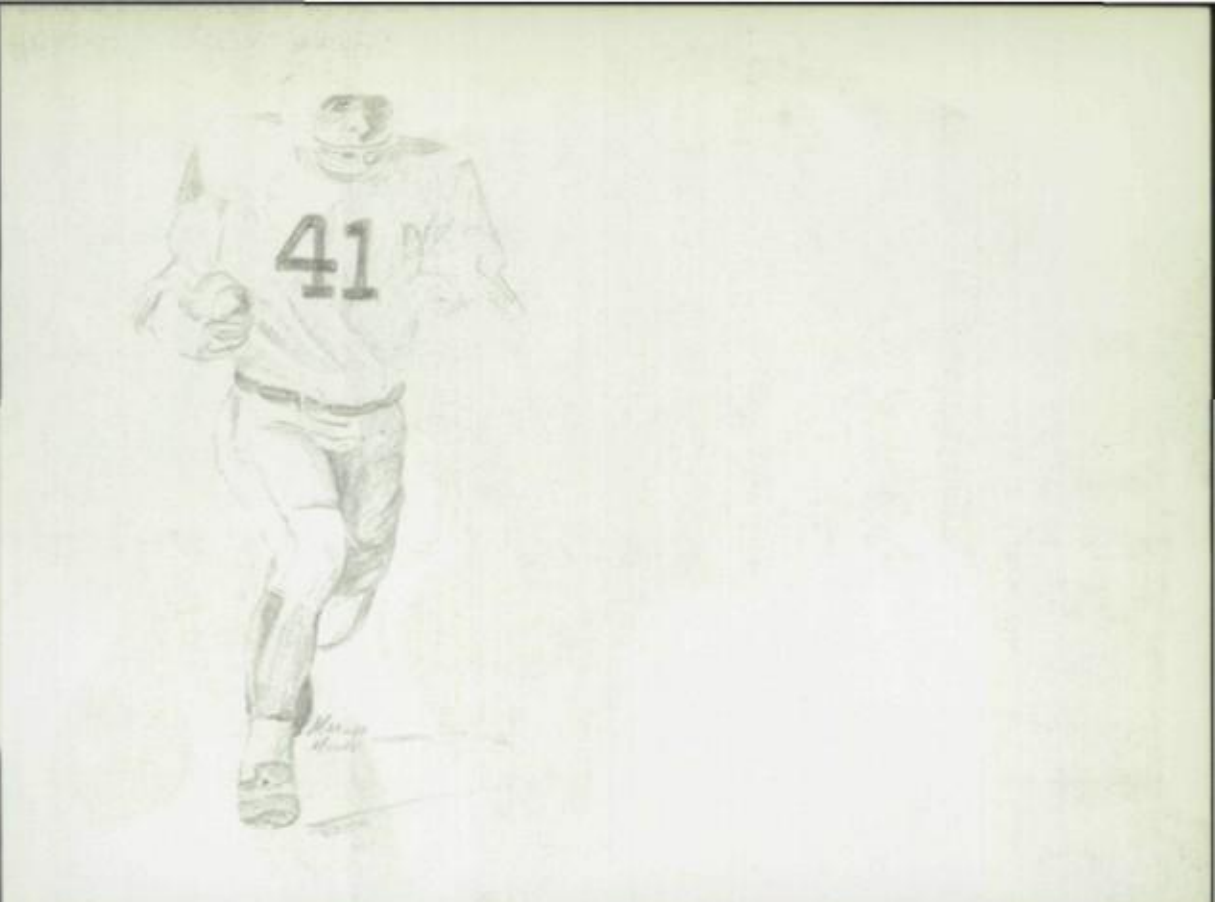

The following week the Plainsmen found themselves under, when Hale battered them.

The enthusiasm of both the team and the whole community was overwhelming, and to many around the state, Big Blue will be recognized as a most dreaded opponent.

Enid traveled to Lawton to open the season. After dropping one the Big Blue bounced back to win the consolation braquet.

Sparked by a new draftee, the Plainsmen gained momentum. Irving Caldwell from Dover was the Spirit stick as he carried the Plainsmen to victory. Big Joe Hysell, using his height and agility, then started pumping shots over the heads of the opponents. Led by their two fine shooting big men and the rebounding Unruh, Big Blue turned in a favorable season.

ORGANIZATIONS

Club Sponsors Computer Course

Tutoring of students in other math classes is the main project of the Delta Theta math club. The club, under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Evelyn Adams, is open to all students enrolled in trigonometry, math analysis, or analytics. The first part of the year was devoted to the study of computers by use of field trips, films, and lectures. A computer class in co-operation with Phillips' University was sponsored after school for interested students.

Delta Theta gives a computer prediction of Plainsmen victory.

Student Assistants Aid Efficiency

In the busy life of E.H.S. someone must pick up attendance slips, take call slips, show new students their classes, and run errands for teachers and office staff. These are just a few of the jobs of the general office assistants. Each hour three or four students give up their study hall to assist the office secretaries.

If you ever needed to buy a pencil, notebook, paper, or any other school supply, you probably found a student eager to help you in the activity office. Business students work in the activity office, and besides school supplies, they sell tickets to school activities, and help keep the records of the school and organizational spending of all Enid High activities up to date.

Business students are also selected to work in the guidance office. These students run errands and pass out call slips for the guidance counselors, and they also help other students who come into the guidance office.

In every physical education class, learning rules of the game, good sportsmanship, and the discipline of accepting penalties for rule infractions in the spirit of play, were all a part of the invaluable training that students learn. Classes team together to perfect certain skills in sports and to learn to get along with others.

Prediction of a victory.

Cooperation was the name of the game as Enid High staged its first all-school musical. An orchestra under the direction of Mr. Eugene Griffin, a huge cast of actors directed by Mrs. Delyte Poindexter, a chorus directed by Mrs. Maurine Priebe and realistic stage settings designed by Mr. Eldon Ames and Mr. Jim Giles combined to make Enid High School's rendition of "Li'l Abner" a smashing success. The two-night performance attracted hundreds of showgoers from all over the county and made all the weeks of exhausting work seem worthwhile.

For the past 44 years I have been the photographer for Enid High School, although it seems only a short time. I have walked through these halls many years and still I stop to look at the old and new senior class pictures. My senior picture hangs on the wall on third floor — class of 1927.

My father, Gene McConkay, in 1910 made the first pictures for the Quill Annual. In this ad I have looked up some of the people that have had a hand in putting out the Quill Annual. The people were editors in chief, making this book possible. In 1908-09 — Karl Green, 1909-10 — Marquis James, 1911 — Lois Troy, 1912 — Douglas Frantz, 1913 — George Field, 1914 — Harry Bass, 1915 — Harry Kornbaum, 1916 — Floyd Tucker, 1917 — Harold J. Godschalk, 1918 — William Earl Leslie. After the war they were called supervisors of Quill Annual. From 1919 to 1922, Miss Louise A. Wilson was supervisor of the Quill Annual for five years, up to 1927. Then Mr. Ralph Miller, in 1927 to 1933, had charge of the Quill. That year we didn't put out an annual, but the McConkays made the photographs for the wall panels and that year was the beginning of the Quill Magazine. In 1934 Ralph Miller and Charlotte Kretsch were supervisors of the Quill Annual until 1939 then Kathryn Bolar and Ruth Scott put out the annual. Then in 1943 to 1945 Mr. V. O. Marshall and Ruth Scott were sponsors. Then Ruth Scott was sponsor of the Quill Annual from 1946 to 1966 a total of 21 years. Mrs. Jannette Norman was adviser of Quill Annual for 1967-1969. Mrs. Ruth Hodgson was sponsor for 1970-1971.

Now we have Mr. Jim Morris in his first year, putting out a new kind, or should we say a new look at Enid High School. Through the eyes and hands of this year's Quill Annual staff they have put together a new look for the Quill '72. I am glad to have a part in the making of photographs for this book.

An education means more than just going to class and taking notes and listening to lectures we sometimes don't want to hear. It means more than examinations and registration for the next semester. It is more than a requirement and more than a means to an end. High School is a way of life, yet is somehow more than this . . .

Pom,
You were one of my best students,
And I Really enjoyed
you in class. Best of Luck as a senior
next year,
your old

Dear Pam. It has been a real blast
having you in
DE. this year
I hope to have you in some classes next year.

PEACE

There is no way to peace —
Peace is the way.

Pam -

It's been great having a sweet girl like you in my first home room. If all students could be like you - teaching would be a lark! Good luck in the future!

Donna Beavers
Student Teacher - NR

Pam,

It's been great knowing you.
You're a great person. And it's also been fun. Well see you next year.

Pam

Terry

You're a real sweet girl and I did enjoy working with you at T, G, and Y. It's too bad
we didn't have some classes this year, I think but I hope we can have some next year.
Good luck in the future
and with family.

Pam -
It's been fun knowing you all this time!
Remember all the fun
things we did in grade school? You're a great sweet girl! Best of luck next year in DE.

Pam -
It's been good knowing you all this time. Be good. May God Bless you.
Sherrie

PAM -

YOU'VE ALWAYS BEEN A SPECIAL FRIEND TO ME!
TO ME YOU SEEM MORE FRIENDLY THAN ANYONE ELSE. I HOPE WE STAY FRIENDS FOR YEARS TO COME. I KNOW WE WILL THOUGH!

YOUR GOOD FRIEND

TOM HARRISON (SR 113)

Pam -
It's really been great getting to know you through DE. This year you're one of the cutest and sweetest girls I've ever met! I hope that we will always be good friends.
Best of luck in DE.
and always.
Love,
Cheryl

Pam,
 you are really a sweet and cute girl. It's really a pleasure to have you in Lit. I hope I have more classes with you next year. Be sweet and have a nice summer!

Love you
 Cheryl Davis

Pam, it has been fun having you in my history class, as you realize this is the 2nd yr in my history class. See, next year I have you in a class next year.
 Good luck with Monte & the 4th grade.

Love & Peace,
 Patti Snyder

Pam,
 you are

Pam,
 you're a great girl. It's really fun being in your history class. Good luck always,
 Peggy Welland

Dear Pam,
 I hope you are having a great time with Monte & the 4th grade. Good luck
 with everything.
 Love,
 Cheryl Davis

Pam,
 It's been great getting to know you this year with only one more early morning breakfast. I think I can't say that they were that good sweet
 and stay sweet

Dr. "73"

Pam,
I hope you have fun this summer and try to be good - if at all possible?
Please try. Okay? Dr.
Cindy McPherson

Pam, you're really a sweetie. I love you so much - I'm not a guesser. I'm glad I got to know such a warm person. Good luck! Karen

Pam,
It's been so much fun knowing you - both at L.H. & if you're a nut!
Well, have fun next year!
I wish you all the beautiful & happy things life has to offer. Keep smiling

Pam -
It's really been great knowing you all these years & I'm glad we're getting to know each other a little better. The year. Thanks for being a friend.

PAM,
I'M SURE GLAD I KNOW YA BECAUSE
YOU'RE A NEAT PERSON TO BE AROUND. I KNOW YOU'RE A GOOD
SALES WOMAN TOO!
YOU KNOW IT!

Pam,
You're really groovy.
Out of County. I know you better this year than ever. Junior High was a bummer.
(not really) Hope I got ya in lot a classes this coming year.
Keep on... Truckin'
Luv
Jim Bittie

Pam,
To a real sweet girl with a great personality
It has been a lot of fun in v. Good luck always, luv,

Pam,
It's been fun this year, tripping you and giving you trouble in 1st hour. I hope I get you next year to have more fun.
Be good!
Doug Marga

PAM
IT'S BEEN NICE KNOWING
YOU - ALTHOUGH I DON'T KNOW
YOU TOO GOOD. THIS YEAR HAS BEEN ALOT OF FUN FOR ME, I HOPE IT WAS
FOR YOU, AND NEXT YEAR WILL BE BETTER.
